Description :

PDF-85c25 | The church and the contemporary art world often find themselves in an uneasy relationship in which misunderstanding and mistrust abound. On one hand, the leaders of local congregations, seminaries, and other Christian ministries often don't know what to make of works by contemporary artists. Not only are these artists mostly unknown to church leaders, they and their work often lead them to regard ... Contemporary Art and the Church: A Conversation Between Two Worlds (Studies in Theology and the Arts)
