Description :

PDF-d9cfc | Anyone who has stood underneath one of Louise Bourgeois' Mamans?her sculptures of spiders, symbolizing maternal protection?understands the singularity of her artistic approach. Stylistically, her pioneering body of work is complex: she deployed a wide variety of materials and practices?drawings, etchings, installations, works made of fabric, sculptures in wood, marble, bronze, latex, plaster... Louise Bourgeois: I Have Been to Hell and Back
